

MAS Intimates - (www.masholdings.com)

Sri Lanka, MAS Holdings operates 28 intimate and active apparel, fabric and accessories plants in five countries. The Sri Lankan company currently employs over 45,000 people. MAS Investments manages a portfolio of services including SAP Solutions through Attune Consulting (Sri Lanka) and the development of dedicated industrial zones to strengthen the region as a hub for intimates and sportswear sourcing. MAS is also renowned for its progressive management culture and people centric work environment, and is held up as an industry benchmark for championing the cause of women empowerment through its initiative MAS Women Go Beyond.

MAS actively partner community level organizations to spur development and improve living conditions of the people. MAS Intimates along with the British Marks & Spencer plc., launched the world's first Carbon Neutral Lingerie Range, taking another step towards sustainable apparel production.

Some of MAS Initiatives are: Empowering its communities; Advancing educational talent through providing scholarships for completion of higher education and expansion of academic potential; Advancing women's entrepreneurship by focusing on developing the skills and knowledge base of selected women entrepreneurs to advance and fortify entrepreneurial activity through providing training on business planning, marketing, finance, product development etc.; Providing internship for students.

Contribution to MDP: - Students shall obtain experience in "carbon-neutral" manufacture, for international markets and on the impact on local communities and corporate social responsibility programs. MAS has factories in Thulhiriya, Colombo and Pallekelle.
